Activity

King, May I?

What You Need

No supplies needed

What You Do

Have your child stand in front of you. Then, give them an action and a number of times to do that action. (Example: three jumps) Before the child moves, they must say, "King, May I." You respond with, "Yes, you may." Then the child does the movements. Repeat with different numbers and movements. Examples of movements: Jumps, baby steps, marching, one leg hops, giant steps, and walking on tippy toes. Try to keep the numbers under five. Repeat as long as there's interest.

Say, "We're going to play a game! I will be the king. I will give you a movement and tell you how many times to do it. If I say, 'Do three jumps,' you will do this. (Demonstrate.) Before you move, you have to ask, 'King, May I.' Are you ready? (Play game.)"

"Great job playing 'King, May I!' Today, we learned about a young king who taught people how to go God's way! King Josiah knew that God's way is perfect. Whose way is perfect? God's way is perfect."

Bible Story

(2 Chronicles 34)

Remember This

2 Samuel 22:31, NIV

Say This

Whose way is perfect?
God's way is perfect.

Prayer

Dear God, thank You for teaching us that Your way is perfect. Help us be brave like King Josiah and tell our friends and family that Your way is perfect, because it's true! God's way is perfect! We love You, God. In Jesus' name, amen.
